OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 18 November 1975

1. (Confidential - GLC) ADMINISTRATIVE Talked to Russ Rourke, in the office of Jack Marsh, Counsellor to the President, about a request from Bob Belair, on the White House Domestic Council, who had been in touch with the House Judiciary Committee about electronic surveillance and now wants to talk to [REDACTED]. I told Rourke that I understood this information was being closely held and wanted Jack Marsh to be aware of the request. Belair was specifically interested in this information in order to develop an Administration position on electronic surveillance and its impact on privacy. Rourke said he will get Marsh's opinion and be back in touch.

2. (Unclassified - WPB) ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Dropped off with Jim Shields, Legislative Assistant to Representative James Santini (D., Nev.), figures on the East German budget. He phoned me later in the day to ask if he could forward these figures to a university professor friend. Paul Arnold, of the Congressional Support Staff, checked this out with the offices concerned. I told Shields that he could send the information to his friend, but he could not attribute it to CIA. He agreed.

3. (Unclassified - WPB) ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Dropped off with Ralph Preston, Staff Assistant on the House Appropriations Committee's Subcommittee on Defense, two copies of the paper we prepared on major allegations against the Agency, which he had requested.

4. (Unclassified - WPB) INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING Accompanied John Muldoon, of OCI, on a briefing of a group of legislative assistants who were preparing for a friendship visit to South Korea. The briefing covered the political situation in South Korea and North Korean intentions and probable moves over the next few years. It was held in Room 135 Cannon. Attending were Jim Streeter, Legislative Assistant to Senator James McClure (R., Idaho); Ron Buckhalt, Press Assistant to Representative William Dickenson (R., Ala.); Bruce Weiarod, Legislative Assistant to Representative Burt Talcott (R., Calif); and Jeff Gaynor.
